PRESS RELEASE

June 19, 2013

ATTEMPTED CHILD ABDUCTION***
UPDATED RELEASE

On June 16, 2013, a report was made to the Pacifica Police Department regarding an attempted child abduction. It was reported that a ten year old girl had been approached by a male suspect who tried to physically take control of her when she refused his demands to go with him. This report was supported by another female juvenile, who had been walking with the alleged victim prior to the incident.

Detectives from the Pacifica Police Department investigated this report, conducting interviews and investigating potential suspects. During the course of the investigation, inconsistencies in statements made to detectives caused investigators to question the validity of the report. During final interviews, both alleged victim and witness admitted the reported crime had not taken place and their story was false.

This case has been closed as no criminal event occurred.

The Pacifica Police Department would like to thank the public for the numerous phone calls received regarding potential suspects. The genuine concern and willingness to help displayed by the community is greatly appreciated!
